19 b DISTRICT ORIO. Warren, O., Jan. 31st, 1865 The actual number of men to be furnished by the several Townships in Gesuga 1864, after allowing all credits to which they are entitled, is as follows:

Auburn, 12 | Munson, Bainbridge. 5 | Middle field. Barton, 12 | Montville, Surplus, 3 Chester. 10 | Newbury. Chardon, 14 Parkman, Claridon, 7 | Russell. Hantsburg. Thompson; Hambden, 9 Troy,

From the numbers above given will be deducted all men who have been mustered since January 1st, 1865, and none others .-Let it be borne in mind, that these numbers must be made up by volunteers and substitutes by the 15 h day of February, 1865, or a draft will be made, and the probability is that those drafted will have to serve in person, for the time allowed after the draft will be much too short to procure volunteers and substitutes to take their places.

DARIUS CADWELL. Capt, and Pro. Mar. 19th Dist. O.

The Approaching Draft-Public Meet-

All citizens of Chardon who feel an interest in saving the Township from the Draft, are requested to meet at the Court House In this village, on Saturday evening of this week, for consultation and action.

Prepare for the Draft!

The Draft approaches, and, now tha all the quotes are assigned, there can be no reason for further besitation or delay in the work of raising men. The time is short, the call imperative, and the quotes 27th day of January, A. D. 1-65, at 7 generally larger than had been anticipated by the people; but those facts, instead of discouraging, should only stimulate action. The men will be raised, if sufficient bounties are offered. This can and must be done .-Men who care for their country will not count the cost, in dollars and cents, at such a time. We repeat, adequate bounties will produce the men, now as heretofore, and let the work begin.

Our fellow-townsman, P. M. Cowles, lase of the 42d O. V. I., a gallant veteran soldier, who has borne the Old Flag in many a hard-fought battle, has received a Lieutenant's commission in the Recruiting service, and asks for volunteers for the new 188th Regiment. Persons wishing to enlist can do no better than to enlist under bim. He promises as liberal bounties as any, is going himself, and has the good fortune to be well known to our citizens, as a tried and true soldier. We commend him and his Regiment, in the hope that through his efforts, aided by the community at large, our quotas may be promptly filled.
